Title IX Coordinator Training: Reading and Resources for Class Four

Class Four Reading

Jody Shipper, Title IX Sexual Assault Investigations: Legal Standards, Best Practices, and Special Considerations NACUA February 2012 CLE. Pay special attention to the checklist that starts on page 11.

Janet P. Judge, Implementing OCR's Dear Colleague Letter: Training Investigators and Hearing Officers Around Issues of Fairness, Credibility and Consent (NACUA Annual Conference, June 2012).

Module Four Resources

Agency Guidance

EEOC Enforcement Guidance on Vicarious Liability for Sexual Harassment: Short piece on credibility determinations

Outlines and Publications

Elsa Cole, Thomas Hustoles, Jackie Mclain How to Conduct a Sexual Harassment Investigation 2006 NACUA Publication (while some of the material is dated, it still contains some very helpful information)

Caselaw

Doe v. Galster (ED WS 2011) A recent K - 12 case out of Wisconsin that includes an order to disclose the results of an internal investigation regarding harassment.